New Park Reveal

Park Patron Sponsors enjoyed a candlelight dinner in our new park on June 20th, arranged by our social chairs. It was a magnificent evening for all! We commend the herculean efforts of countless community members who helped our new park come to fruition. May it serve as a meeting place for children and neighbors to play, laugh and forge lifetime friendships.

Membership

Our membership is complete and closed for new C members at this time. However, we very much encourage your friends to register as a prospective member for next year. Prospective members should go to https://www.brookwoodhills.com/new_member_info.php, then click on the link 'click here for prospective member pool' and follow instructions to register. This will include a payment of $250 that will be refunded against initiation fees if they join. We expect to begin reviewing new C prospective member applications in early 2020.

All homeowners in Brookwood Hills are eligible to apply for membership in the Brookwood Hills Community Club (BWHCC). For information on how to apply for membership, please send an email to membership@brookwoodhills.com including your contact information and desired membership level. The current Membership Chair will then guide you through the application process. Applications may be submitted at any time.

By now everyone should have a login and be signed up for the new BWHCC website. All current members have been registered in the system with a "Primary" and "Secondary" member. Primary members receive invoices and all BWHCC related communications. Secondary members receive all BWHCC related communications. The new website is set up so that all members have the ability to update their individual member profiles. It is solely up to the member to keep their profile current. This is the only way we have to communicate with you.

For your 2020 budgeting purposes, membership dues will be invoiced in late January/early February 2020. Payment will be due before March 15, 2020. Payments received after March 15, 2020 will automatically be invoiced a $100 late fee. Your membership will be dropped on April 1, 2020 if unpaid. The new website system will automatically bill and credit payments paid with a credit card. We had far too many past due accounts this year, but we were lenient because of the learning curve with the new membership website. This will not be tolerated in the automated system next year, so please plan to pay your invoice before March 15, 2020.

Kindly note that the Membership team (and all Board positions) are volunteers. We do our best to respond to you in a timely manner. If you have a membership related question, please direct it to membership@brookwoodhills.com. If you have a website related question, please direct it to webmaster@brookwoodhills.com.

Recommendation

Linda Copeland would like to recommend would like to recommend Herve Benoit (Ben!) if you need a wonderful taxi driver. She met Ben when he was working for Buckhead Safety Cab before that company shut down. He now has a cab with Rapid Taxi. This company does not have dispatch service, so Ben must be contacted directly. He is most dependable and so pleasant. If you need to have transportation from someone who you will enjoy knowing, she recommends your calling Ben at (678)938-9762. Or, you may text him at that number. He is familiar with Brookwood Hills and you may tell him that Linda recommended him.

Announcement

Our former neighbor on Palisades Road, Dr. James Ingvoldstad, has written a book titled Road Trip: A Doctor's Call to Haiti. Dr. James Ingvoldstad is a retired physician who practiced medicine for 47 years and helped many families in Brookwood Hills.

Jim is now an author, publishing his first book which will be available on Amazon beginning in September. You may also order your book now by contacting Jim directly at jpi6@hotmail.com. The book will be in paperback or Kindle Edition.

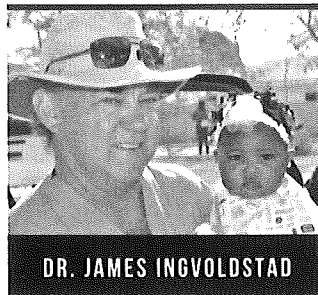

Background on Road Trip: A Doctor's Call to Haiti : (Excerpt from Amazon)

“Dr. James Ingvoldstad shares stories of adventure, trust, and kindness in Haiti that surprised him as he planned to serve the Haitian people and ended up being served.

Road Trip: One doctor's call to Haiti, chronicles the adventures, surprises and touching moments of the author's eighteen years of travel to Haiti and La Gonave. From his fraternity days, through forty years of medical practice, this book is a tapestry of events woven and bonded by the heart and soul of the Haitian people; who became a part of, not just his story, but also many others. An often-overlooked country, Haiti is home to a people that show core values of trust, faith, respect, and caring every day. Those same values are shared in equal measure by his fellow travelers. Each came to serve and share their time and talents and instead had their lives transformed by an unexpected chance to be served. Through these stories, you may, in some measure, experience how those who are poor and seem the least of us, have hearts that can change the world.”
